Dear Adityaji,

I was very sorry to read about the sad demise of Diwakarji. I had met Diwakarji with Mr. H. T. Parekh decades back, both visionaries in their fields. For me this was one of the meetings I will always remember. What was imbibed in me at the meeting is their serious concerns about certain trends in India then and their urge to find solutions. Since that day I had always been in touch with Diwakarji and the extraordinary work he has done for the upliftment of women at Banasthali University. He has left behind a great institution and his work will inspire one and all to further take the institution to yet greater heights.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences and convey the same to all the members of the family and the men and women behind Banasthali.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Hamid Moochhala
